

Lesson # 2 -- The Effects of the Fall of Man (1).

Introduction

- A. The choice of error brought judgment into the human race. This is an inescapable principle. (The practice of truth brings God's grace.)
- B. No human event has brought such far-reaching effects as the decision by Adam and Eve to sin against God. "There is no little sin because there is no little god to sin against."

- I. Personal shame and fear, Gen. 3:7,10.
- II. Loss of fellowship with God, Gen. 3:8-10.
- III. Hiding from God, Gen. 3:8-10.
- IV. Tendency to pervert the truth, Gen. 3:11-14.
- V. The cursing of the Serpent, Gen. 3:14.
- VI. Women to bear children in sorrow, Gen. 3:16.
- VII. Women subjected to man, Gen. 3:16.
- VIII. The cursing of the ground, Gen. 3:17-19.
- IX. Physical death, Gen. 3:19.
- X. Expulsion from the Garden, Gen. 3:24.
