

The Christian and His Deliverance

The Purpose of this Study: Our endeavor, in this series of lessons, is to glorify God through coming to a deeper understanding of the believer's deliverance. The freedom which has been obtained for us by Jesus Christ, is not only a legal benefit of salvation, but is to be a practical experience of power, assurance and joy in the daily life. It is tragic but true, that many believers have areas in their life which is more characterized by bondage than freedom, by weakness than power, by confusion than assurance, by depression than joy. We may not allow this to continue. Jesus Christ is our Deliverer and He has set us free. We must learn how to implement this freedom in our daily life. This is the purpose of this series of lessons.

The Recommendation: Spend at least one-half hour a day studying the Scripture and the lesson. Pray for illumination about character defects, sins of omission and commission, and giving ground to Satan. Be honest! Accept the truth and obey God. Be willing to acknowledge and forsake those sins and errors which have brought you into bondage. Trust God to turn the searchlight of His Word upon your heart and life. Ask Him to rescue you and to enable you to live in the freedom and liberty He has purchased for you.
