

Suggestions Regarding Healing Prayer

Personal Preparation in Order to Do Healing Prayer

- Learn to be preoccupied with God Himself.

Surrender of life – time – money – body – ability – family – thoughts – relationships.

Affirm the choice daily, honestly and realistically, in expressions of love and faith.

Establish a daily worship time and maintain a constant attitude of adoration.

Be practical and honest about putting off the old life and putting on the new.

Learn to respond to trials and challenges with thanksgiving, faith, love and hope.

- Consider God's Relationship with those Desiring Prayer.

His love for them and desire to be involved more and more in their life.

His provision for them. (Memorize a couple verses related to the following.)

The provision of God Himself, His Word, and His Church.

The Crucifixion – for forgiveness, freedom from sin and for healing.

The Resurrection – for justification, ability to live above sin and for healing.

The Ascension – for freedom from Satan, his work, and effects of the Fall.

The Day of Pentecost – for the benefits of the baptism and filling of the Holy Spirit.

Relating to the Person before Doing Healing Prayer.

- The necessity of daily intercessory prayer.
- The value of keeping good records.
- The importance of kindness, confidentiality, and refraining from prying and judging.
- Listen to the person, ask leading questions and watch for signals related to the problem.

“When did the problem start? (What happened? – people involved – family etc.).

“How were you involved and how do you feel about it?

When You Pray for a Person

- If a recurring Prayer time – ask for their authority to pray for them as a priest.
- Learn to understand what it means to “speak into” the spiritual world.
- Occasionally glance at the face of the person for signals as to what’s happening.
- Help the person to relax, to receive, and allow you to do the praying.
- Be aware of the many facets of the presenting problem. (Rarely it’s one issue).
- Major on what’s most important for the person – what they really need.
- If you run into a “wall,” or feel hindered – stop, talk to the person and pray about it.
- Make sure the person has “reconciled the past,” honestly repented and is desperate.
- Follow any “lead” you may have by the Holy Spirit, the person, verbal or otherwise.
- If led, rebuke the problem and in particular the “source” of the problem.

Pull out any “fiery darts,” remove their poison and teaching.

Cancel any conditioning with it’s programming – binding the triggers and remove.

Keep in Mind before and while you’re Praying

- You’re bringing a Person to the suppliant. (Emphasize the relationship.)
(Father, Son, Husband, Wife, Mother, Shepherd, Sheep, God of all Comfort, etc.)
- Utilize the particular provision the person may need.
(Peace, Conviction, Wisdom, Love, Acceptance, Assurance, Cleansing, etc. be creative “Waves of peace,” “Washing of cleansing (name what kind),” etc.)
- The person belongs to God – is the object of His love – and is of great value to Him.
- You are bringing the Kingdom of God into the life of the suppliant.
- You are opposing the Kingdom of Darkness in the life of the suppliant.
